To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Dr. Américo Sansigolo Kerr and Mr. Thiago Gomes Veríssimo, from the University of Sao Paulo, will be visiting Harvard University in October 2010 to discuss collaborative research on air pollution. The meetings will take place the Harvard School of Public Health, in Boston, MA.

Harvard School of Public Health has arranged and will pay for their accommodation in Boston during the visit. They will receive no other remuneration for this visit.

Please feel free to contact me for further assistance if needed.

Sincerely,

Majid Ezzati
